Memorandum of Agreement

SUBJECT: Temporary Attachment of [] to the Intelligence Producers Council

25X1

1. The Director, DIA, has agreed to provide an individual to serve on the Intelligence Producers Council (IPC). The purpose of the attachment is to furnish an individual to the IPC who understands the DIA production role and to serve as an action officer for various production related requirements. Accordingly, the following actions and responsibilities are agreed to and have been or will be taken:

a. DIA Actions:

(1) Obtain approval from OSD for the attachment of its employee on a nonreimbursable basis to the IPC for a 24-month period. Since the attachment is nonreimbursable, there will be no extension of the 24-month period. The DIA will provide another individual to complete the requirement if tenure is not completed. NOTE: OSD approval obtained 18 Jun 84.

(2) Maintain and submit employee's time and attendance record and maintain employee's personnel records.

(3) Forward to the IPC, employee-related actions for completion by the appropriate supervisory personnel. These actions are within-grade certifications, employee appraisals, training projections for career development and similar type actions.

(4) Certify employee's special accesses for the 24-month attachment period. Action completed per DIA message 061220Z July 1984.

b. Deputy Director for Intelligence actions:

(1) Assign the individual duties and responsibilities on the IPC staff appropriate for his grade and experience level and provide the DIA with a description of these duties (job sheet). The individual will not be attached to an element other than the IPC.

(2) Maintain and report individual time and attendance to the DIA timekeeper, []

(3) As requested, complete employee career appraisals, within-grade certifications and career training projections as prescribed by DIA regulations/procedures.

(4) Fund employee travel performed for or on behalf of the IPC. Travel in support of the DIA will be borne by DIA.

(5) Upon completion of the 24-month attachment by the employee, provide DIA with a written evaluation of the employee's contributions and significant achievements while serving on the IPC.

B245

2. Termination: This Memorandum of Agreement may be terminated prior to the completion of the 24-month tour when both parties agree that termination is in the best interest of the employee or the Agency concerned.

3. Review: This Memorandum of Agreement is subject to review, after signature, when either party notifies the other party of the need and reason for a review.
